

What to bring to Wilderness Voyageurs

Please leave electronics at home. (cheap cameras ok)

Equipment for sale and rent in the Old Quarry office

Food

Bring lunch and snacks for the first day, the rest of the meals are included

Sleeping/toiletries

- Sleeping bag
- Sleeping pad
- Toothbrush, toothpaste, soap, towel, feminine hygiene products, etc

Clothes (Maine can get cold at night, even in the summer)

- 3 T-shirts (synthetic is preferred)
- 1 Long sleeved shirt
- 1 Set non-cotton long underwear (warm synthetic pj pants are fine)
- Warm jacket (Fleece, synthetic or wool)
- Warm hat
- 2 pair shorts quick drying and lightweight (bathing suit can double as 1 pair of shorts)
- Bathing suit

Footgear

- One pair of sneakers for land
- One pair of close-toed footwear to kayak and swim in
- 3 Pairs of socks

Other

- Dry bag or zip-lock bag for items you want accessible while kayaking.
- Spoon, fork, knife, cup, and a plate or bowl
- Sunscreen and lip balm
- Hat with a wide brim to protect your eyes from the sun while kayaking
- Sunglasses to protect your eyes from the sun (optional)
- Two 1-liter or 1-quart water bottles
- Headlamp or flashlight, and extra batteries
- Camera (optional)
- Tent
- A story to tell for story telling time (optional) Get ready to have a fun adventure!